Place: Painesville Square Gazebo (Parking Available)

229 years ago 39 brave patriots committed their lives in sacred honor to providing a foundation for our freedom. Their commitment to God, country and family was evident in the document they signed and in the lives they lived. Many of the foundational principles expressed in the United States Constitution are under attack. By exploring the lives of three of the signers, we believe wisdom can be found to guide us through these changing times. This day is intended to remind Americans of where we came from and declare that we are still “One Nation Under God!”
